

Software Project Management

Lesson 7 – Project Culture
Quiz

Uwe Gühl

Winter 2015 / 2016

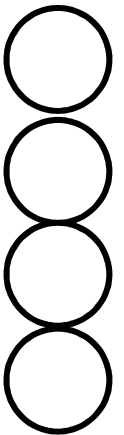

1. Learning

Whose responsibility is it to seek lessons which can be applied to a project?

- a) The Project Manager
- b) Only the Project Principal
- c) Everyone involved in the project
- d) Only the users

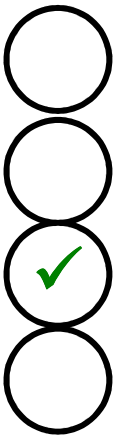

1. Learning

Whose responsibility is it to seek lessons which can be applied to a project?

- a) The Project Manager
- b) Only the Project Principal
- c) Everyone involved in the project
- d) Only the users

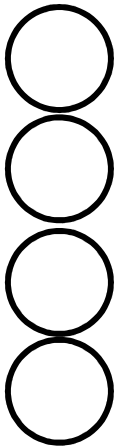

2. Project team

What does NOT help to achieve a successful project team?

- a) Increasing communication possibilities
- b) Hiding failings
- c) Value people
- d) Clear responsibilities

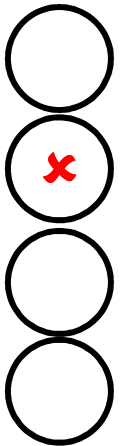

2. Project team

What does NOT help to achieve a successful project team?

- a) Increasing communication possibilities
- b) Hiding failings
- c) Value people
- d) Clear responsibilities

3. Conflict Management

There is a dispute between two project members.
How should you proceed as project manager?

- a) First talk individually to them to understand the issue, than try to solve it in a meeting with both ☐
- b) Addressing the topic to the Principal ☐
- c) Defining a related topic for the agenda of the next status meeting ☐
- d) No further activities, maybe the dispute was only temporarily. ☐

3. Conflict Management

There is a dispute between two project members.
How should you proceed as project manager?

- a) First talk individually to them to understand the issue, than try to solve it in a meeting with both ☒
- b) Addressing the topic to the Principal ☐
- c) Defining a related topic for the agenda of the next status meeting ☐
- d) No further activities, maybe the dispute was only temporarily. ☐